

Porter County Ordinance which allows for the assessment of detention fees. This sample Ordinance is shared with the approval of Porter Circuit Court, but with the caveat that it should only be used when there has been an adjudication. This requires some monitoring. The Court also advises that it is important that the fund be a non-reverting fund.